LUTHERAN HIGH NORTH
LUTHERAN SOUTH ACADEMY

CONGREGATION STUDENT ASSISTANCE APPLICATION

All Association congregation member students attending either Lutheran High North or Lutheran South Academy desiring Congregation Student Assistance must complete this application to file for the assistance.

CONGREGATION STUDENT ASSISTANCE is provided by Association congregations to help their member students with financial or scholarship assistance. This application must be completed each year a student attends.

Generally, students and/or their parents must be active members of their Association congregation to be eligible for student assistance. While specific requirements for assistance vary by congregation, active membership generally includes: regular church attendance, regular Sunday School/bible class attendance, sacrificial giving and regular participation in congregation ministries and programs.

Students who qualify for Congregation Student Assistance will receive a monthly reduction in their school tuition equal to one-tenth of the annual Congregation Student Assistance amount. The congregation will provide the assistance directly to the school and the assistance will be credited to the student's account.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES

- 1) Complete this application.
- 2) Have the application signed by your pastor including the assistance amount.
- 3) Make a copy if parent or church desires one for their records.
- 4) Submit the completed, signed original to the school office.

NOTE: Once the application procedures are complete you will receive the assistance each month (August through May) on your tuition statement.
